Student Identification Requirements

Students are advised the minimum identification requirements must be met prior to enrolment:

- Provision of the student's Unique Student Identifier (USI);
- Provision of Australian legal photo identification for assessment purposes.

If students do not have a USI they can create one at www.usi.gov.au or ask Alpine Training Pty Ltd for assistance. Please refer to Alpine Training Pty Ltd Student Handbook for further information. You must bring three forms of ID one of which must include a photograph of you.

Language Literacy and Numeracy Assessment (LLN)

To work in a business environment, students must demonstrate suitable LLN skills which are assessed when applying for enrolment. The assessment relates to the Australian Core Skills Framework (ACSF) and is a required part of applying for enrolment.

Please refer to the Alpine Training Pty Ltd Student Handbook – Student Entry Procedure for further information.

Alpine Training Pty Ltd selection criteria takes into account various factors when deciding upon which students will be offered places in the course including;

- The students' needs and desired outcomes;
- The ability and commitment of the student to complete the course;
- Eligibility requirements listed in the National Training Package;
- Students existing ability in the ACSF core skills - learning, reading, writing, oral communication and numeracy;
- Any areas where students may need additional support (e.g. if they have low English levels) and to identify whether students' physical attributes may influence their ability to complete the training and assessment (e.g. if heavy lifting is required).

STUDENT HANDBOOK

The student handbook is available via our website, we advise that you download this and read prior to attending your class <http://www.alpinetraining.edu.au/>

Support Services

Students are asked to identify their individual needs, but are sometimes reluctant to do so. Alpine Training Pty Ltd personnel monitor the progress of all students and their readiness for assessment as they progress through their course.

Delivery materials and methods may be adapted for the special needs of clients. Some examples may include enlarging print materials for vision requirements, provision of ICT equipment and support, accessing interpreter services or using individual delivery methods. A range of support services, including LLN training, may be accessed as required for student needs.

Information about educational and support services is available to students and any cost associated with them. Students are encouraged to speak with their trainer or any other Alpine Training Pty Ltd representative to discuss their support needs (see also: 'Reasonable Adjustment' below).

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Credit Transfer (CT)

Recognition documentation and applications is available for all units of competency for those students who have extensive experience in the unit areas. RPL applications will be offered and processed as per Alpine Training Pty Ltd Student Advice and Selection Policy.

Alpine Training Pty Ltd recognises Qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by other RTOs under the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF). Students may use Qualifications and Statements of Attainment to gain credit towards programs offered by Alpine Training Pty Ltd.

Please refer to Alpine Training Pty Ltd Student Handbook for further information.

SIT50416 - Diploma of Hospitality Management
Administration – one off fee	$295
Tuition Fees	$7,500	28 Units @ $267.86 per unit Fees to be paid for each unit prior to commencement of training Payment plans available upon meeting eligibility

Assessment Arrangements

A range of assessment environments are involved in the assessment of student's competency. Workplace and case study projects are employed for summative assessment, where workplace application of all competencies can be observed by the Alpine Training Pty Ltd Assessor. For on-the-job assessment observations, the Assessor organises to visit the student on-site at a mutually convenient time.

Recognition documentation and applications is available for all units of competency for those students who have extensive experience in the unit areas. RPL applications will be offered and processed as per Alpine Training Pty Ltd's Student Advice and Selection Policy.

At all times, the assessment approaches planned will be compliant with Alpine Training Pty Ltd's Assessment Policy, and when implemented will meet the Code of Conduct requirements. All assessment approaches used are compliant with the requirements of the Assessment Guidelines from the National Training Package or accredited course curriculum.

For each unit of competency (and each element within the unit), a range of evidence will be collected as per the evidence gathering techniques below. It is a requirement that all assessments maintain at a minimum, three types of appropriate evidence to verify the candidate's competence for each element within a unit, which address the performance criteria requirements of the elements. At least one of these evidence pieces should be a form of direct evidence (it should be noted that evidence pieces may overlap elements and units within the course).

All assessment tools are aligned directly with the course the following ways:

- Meets Unit, Element and Performance Criteria requirements;
- Covers the Unit Range Statement or Range of Conditions, Evidence Guide and Critical Aspects of Evidence or Assessment Conditions;
- Covers all Underpinning Knowledge or Knowledge Evidence, and Skills requirements or Performance Evidence; and
- Covers Specific Evidence Requirements as listed in each individual unit of competency.

Resources are often specified that must be used in assessment at a unit of competency level. All specific resources for each unit of competency are listed within Alpine Training Pty Ltd's Assessment Resource for each unit. Information within each unit resource includes:

- Specific assessment resources required;
- Assessment methods available to be used;
- Plan for and timing of assessment; and
- Any adjustments that may be needed to cater for different student characteristics.

Reasonable Adjustment

There may be times and situations in which a student may require 'reasonable adjustment' of the training and assessment methods implemented by Alpine Training Pty Ltd to meet their specific individual needs. These individual student needs may include (but not limited to):

- Disability;
- Temporary or permanent injury (i.e. back injury, broken leg/arm); or
- Sight or hearing impairments.

Reasonable adjustments to the way in which evidence of performance is gathered (e.g. in terms of the information to be provided to the candidate and the type of evidence to be collected from the candidate) can only occur where the adjustments do not alter the expected performance standards for learning and assessment.

The reasonable adjustments to the training and assessment process may include a variety of modifications to the methods of delivery and assessment to assist the student undertake the course. The adjustments may include actions such as:

- Assistance in the form of the training location to allow easier access
- Accessing relevant equipment or aids to assist the student adjustments to the assessment methods to cater for any special needs (without effecting the integrity of the outcome)

Where a student requests or is identified as requiring reasonable adjustment to the training and assessment process a detailed training and assessment plan including timetables, notes regarding the required adjustments, and any related communications regarding the adjustments must be maintained in the student file.
