Welcome to Alpine Training

Welcome to the first day of your future.

At Alpine Training, we believe that today's learners are the leaders of tomorrow. Vocational education plays a critical role in creating a strong and healthy economy by equipping people with the skills they need to succeed.

By delivering each course through the Alpine Training experience, we can ensure that we support our students on their education journey.

Through Alpine Training, we only offer courses that are in demand by industry, giving our students an opportunity to participate fully in the workplace and to live a better life. Alpine Training provides relevant, work-ready qualifications delivered through high-quality teaching. Our courses offer students the opportunity to uncover the right opportunity and career direction for their individual needs.

Alpine Training works directly with clients to find a course that suits their unique career or workplace requirements and if needed, we can tailor the course to suit individual skill levels, acknowledging their existing experience.

By providing high-quality services, we offer a clear competitive advantage – our students and business clients can be certain they're getting the best service possible.

In this handbook we not only wish to welcome you to Alpine Training and to bid you all the best for a successful qualification and training program, but to make you aware of how we work, how we can and will interact with you, and what we require from you to get the most out of your course.

Whether you are attending classes on-line, at one of our campus locations in Queensland, or in your own workplace or an employers' or agency training facility, your training with Alpine Training and that means doing things one way – the best possible.

We look forward to seeing you through this journey and become a leader of tomorrow.

Best wishes,

Chief Executive Officer

Alpine Training

Using the Student Handbook

This handbook contains important information about studying with Alpine Training and we encourage you to read it carefully prior to commencing your course. The Student Handbook will aid you in getting the most out of your course with us. There is a range of information covered here including summaries of our policies and procedures, and our code of conduct.

It is our determined objective to make your studies enjoyable, productive and successful and, to that end, whilst we encourage you to refer to this handbook we also encourage you to communicate with us if you have any questions, concerns or issues whatsoever.

We are happy to assist and determined to help you to succeed.

About Alpine Training

At Alpine Training we firmly believe that today's learners are the leaders of tomorrow.

Operating nationally, we create positive change in individuals, which leads to a better society in which to live and work. We deliver a growing scope of nationally accredited Certificate and Diploma level training and education.

What is an RTO?

Alpine Training is a Registered Training Organisation (RTO). RTOs are those training providers registered by the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) (or, in some cases, a state regulator) to deliver Vocational Education and Training services.

RTOs are recognised as providers of quality-assured and nationally recognised training and qualifications.

There are currently around 5,000 RTOs in Australia. A complete list of RTOs is maintained at training.gov.au, the authoritative national register of the VET sector in Australia.

Quality Assurance

Alpine Training operates under Quality Assurance guidelines as a registered training organisation. These guidelines are known as the Standards for Registered Training Organisations 2015 they provide framework for the policies and procedures that we follow in delivering our services. We regularly perform internal audits against these Standards to ensure that we are compliant with the Standards, and that our policies and procedures are being correctly implemented. Our registered training organisations are also subject to external audits conducted from time to time, by state training authorities, the national VET regulator (Australian Skills Quality Authority), and independent financial auditors.

Quality at Alpine Training is about us providing students/course participants and client companies with a service that meets their needs, if not exceeds them. To do so we constantly seek to improve our service capability. Feedback from students/course participants and or clients is an important part of our quality review process, and we encourage you to provide feedback at any time about any aspect of our service.

Student Surveys

In the interest of continually seeking to improve the quality of our service, you may be asked from time to time to complete an Evaluation Form or Survey. This may occur during and at the end of your course. Please be assured that completed Evaluation Forms or Surveys remain confidential and are only used for the purpose of improving the quality of our service. Your employer (if applicable) may also be sent an Evaluation Form or Survey to complete.

We welcome comments which might help us to improve our services, products and processes at any time.

Your Enrolment

Enrolment Process

CLIENT SELECTION

Alpine Training's selection criteria will take into account various factors when deciding upon which clients will be offered places in the program.

Various courses at Alpine Training may include additional selection criteria, however, the common selection criteria adopted by us are;

- The ability and commitment of the students to complete the course,
- National Training Package requirements;
- Contractor or client requirements; and
- Language, Literacy and Numeracy requirements

ENROLMENT

Prospective students are required to complete the online Student Application Form prior to the commencement of training. The Application Form collects all necessary information required under the current AVETMISS standards and can also allow for the collection of data required by the State Government Registered Body where this is required.

Students are required to produce the following;

- Photo ID (i.e. Driver's License, Passport)
- If not a permanent resident; current passport with visa information
- Prospective students under the age of 18 years require their parents or guardians formal written consent as well as their signature on all enrolment documentation.

Stage 1: Pre- Enrolment

Your Course Careers Advisor and our Admissions team will work with you to help you complete the online Application Form and ensure all necessary evidence has been attached. This may include ensuring you:

- Have provided all necessary ID documents
- Have completed and submitted your application form
- Have met the eligibility requirements
- Have completed the Language, Literacy and Numeracy assessment (where required)
- Have a valid USI number

Once the above has been completed and approved, you will be advised of your acceptance into the course. We will confirm the details of your enrolment, including;

- The qualification you are enrolling in,
- The Registered Training Organisation you are enrolling with, and
- The course delivery method you have chosen.

Stage 2: Enrolment

Once all the above have been completed and approved, your enrolment will be processed by your training coordinator. This will normally occur within 2 business days of your enrolment being finalised, please note this does not include weekends. This part of the process involves:

- Receiving your log in details to your online portal
- Receiving your classroom based study details if applicable
- Being assigned to your VET Teacher

Stage 3: Post Enrolment

Once your training coordinator has finalised your enrolment, our Student Support Team will contact you. Normally this occurs within two (2) business days to welcome you to your course. During this welcome call, you may ask our Student Support Officers any questions/concerns you may have in regards to your course. Of course, you are welcome to reach out to us at any time throughout your course for assistance or clarification.

Orientation

Students will be given a full orientation on their start day or prior to the first day of their course.

An Orientation session is arranged for all students, unless studying via distance whereby a telephone/ e-mail orientation will be conducted. The Orientation program is designed to give you important information that will help familiarise you with Alpine Training, our support services and your course, along with:

- understanding the information contained in the Student Handbook, including your rights as a student,
- ensuring you are familiar with the facilities, classes and resources,
- meeting your VET Teacher and additional support staff,
- understanding your course timetable, any applicable class requirements and attendance,
- understanding your overall course assessment requirements, including work placement if applicable,
- providing you with essential evacuation and emergency plan procedures, and
- practical placements (if applicable) and associated assessment requirements,
- discussion of the on-the-job training which will form a part of the program, if you are enrolled in a traineeship or studying in a flexible workplace based learning mode,
- outline of traineeship requirements, if you are undertaking the study as part of a traineeship,
- emergency procedures,
- knowing where to access more information, as required.

The Unique Student Identifier (USI)

If you are studying nationally recognised training in Australia from 1 January 2015, you are required to have a Unique Student Identifier (USI). Your USI links to an online account that contains all your training records and results (transcript) that you have completed from 1 January 2015 onwards.

When applying for a job or enrolling in further study, you will often need to provide your training records and results (transcript). One of the main benefits of the USI is the ability to provide students with easy access to their training records and results (transcript) throughout their life. You can access your USI account online from your computer, tablet or smart phone any time. Student Information for the USI Fact Sheets are available to download from <https://www.usi.gov.au/students> . It's free and easy to create your own USI and will only take a few minutes of your time. Alternatively, we can create your USI on your behalf. To do this, we will need some additional identification information from you such as your driver's licence number. Our enrolment process will clarify what you need to know.

Language, Literacy and Numeracy Assessment

Language, Literacy and Numeracy skills are important to the success in the course you have chosen. In each course, every student/course participant has the opportunity to further develop their skills in these important areas, and apply them to their own work.

During enrolment, an assessment of your Language, Literacy and Numeracy skills will be conducted to assess your ability in the core skills learning, writing, reading, oral communication and numeracy. Your enrolment will not be finalised until we have initially assessed your skills. The process is as follows:

1. Once your enrolment has been finalised, you will be given access to our LLN system and your log in details will be sent to you.
2. Once you have completed the LLN your results will be saved to your file and sent to your VET Teacher.
3. Your VET Teacher will then determine if there are any areas in which you require assistance, if you and your VET teacher determine you require extra support you may be provided contact details of an external organisation in order to improve your Language, Literacy and Numeracy Skills where required.

Based on the level of support identified in the Assessment, and/or subsequent training, students may be supported by the VET Teacher during the training and /or be referred to a Government agency or a specialist Registered Training Organisation that can assist in Workplace English Language and Literacy (WELL) program, Adult Migrant English Program (AMEP) and Language, Literacy and Numeracy Program (LL&N).

Nationally Recognised Training

Nationally Recognised Training (NRT) is training that leads to the award of vocational qualifications in accordance with the Australian Qualification Framework (AQF) that are recognised across Australia. Training Organisations must be registered to deliver Nationally Recognised Training.

All Assessments undertaken in relation to any nationally recognised training course by Alpine Training comply with Training Package requirements and may include observation, oral and written questioning, project work and both individual and group work tasks. Your Alpine Training VET Teacher will inform you about how and when Assessments will occur for your course.

Credit Transfer

Credit transfer is training credit for a unit of competency or module previously completed by a student. Credit transfers are essentially administrative processes. These are not formal enrolments in the normal sense, because they involve neither delivery nor assessment of the student's knowledge. Credit Transfers are only issued if the units of competency are equivalent. When applying for a credit transfer, the applicant must attach a certified copy of the previous qualification, including a transcript of the course which sites the exact unit of competency they are applying for.

Example: A forklift driver is applying for one unit credit transfer for the unit TLILIC2001 Licence to operate a forklift truck as part of the Certificate III in Warehousing Operations. The student needs to present the original Certificate/Academic Transcript/Statement of Attainment listing the unit to be credited. This will be copied and a declaration noted on it stating the original has been sighted.

RECOGNITION OF QUALIFICATIONS ISSUED BY OTHER RTOS

Alpine Training recognises Qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by other RTOs under the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF). You may use Qualifications and Statements of Attainment to gain credit towards programs offered by Alpine Training.

Recognition of Prior Learning

RPL is an assessment process that assesses an individual's formal, non-formal and informal learning (life experience) to determine the extent to which that individual has achieved the required learning outcomes, competency outcomes, or standards for entry to, and/or partial or total completion of, a VET qualification. By providing us with the evidence of skills, knowledge and experience students can gain credit towards all or part of a relevant qualification. Forms of evidence may include; a portfolio of evidence, third party reports, oral questioning, practical tasks, etc.

Example: A person who has been working as a manager for several years has applied for RPL in order to obtain a Diploma of Management. A recognition assessment planning interview is set up between the candidate and VET Teacher. The purpose of this meeting is to:

- Help the candidate identify appropriate forms of evidence;
- Guide the candidate on the use of recognition tools;
- Inform the candidate about the assessment process.

You may apply for Recognition of Prior Learning for existing competencies which you have gained through previous studies and/or through life and work experience. Competency is demonstrated through a portfolio of evidence mapped against the qualification. Alpine Training's RPL process is as follows;

1. Enquire about the process through your VET Teacher, or nearest Alpine Training office.
2. We will provide you with relevant information relating to the qualification you're interested in, and the recognition process.
3. Work with your assigned VET Teacher to prepare a portfolio of evidence.
4. Pay the applicable RPL assessment fee.
5. Submit the portfolio for assessment.
6. Interview with your VET Teacher.
7. Assessment and written report to student.
8. Award of Qualification/SOA, or resubmission of evidence to your VET Teacher.

RPL can be granted for units of competency and for complete qualifications.

For more information on recognition of Qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by other RTOs, Credit Transfer and RPL please contact the Alpine Training Student Support Team via email at : info@alpinetraining.edu.au

Payment Options

Fee for Service

Full Fee for Service is a course where you are accountable for 100% of the course fees.

If you are undertaking your course under full-fee-for-service arrangements, you will be provided with all fee information in the pre-course documentation prior to accepting a training proposal or enrolments taking place. Irrespective of the availability and receipt of government subsidies by an employer or student, it is a requirement of the RTO that where course fees, enrolment fees or other charge are applicable these must be paid by the specified due dates on the basis of a tax invoice and paid in Australian dollars.

Alpine Training offers payment plans for the convenience of students and employers. The payment plan is set to take out payments in instalments (as agreed on the application form) from either your bank account or credit card each fortnight. Fees may apply.

Government funding assistance

Government funding may be available to assist students with course fees in industry areas where skilled workers are needed. Applicants must be able to fulfil a list of criteria to be eligible to apply and receive government funding. Funding criteria is unique to each funding program and will be carefully screened during your enrolment session.

At both state and federal level, government commitment to upskilling the Australian workforce has resulted in a comprehensive framework of funding schemes and incentive opportunities. When making the decision to accept government funded training (if available), please take into consideration the implications of accepting a funded place and how this may affect your future plans and decisions. For more information on government funded programs contact your enrolment representative.

Fees and Refund Policy

The amount of fees, including program fees, administration fees, material fees, and any additional fees which may be applicable for services, and the payment terms where applicable, have been provided to you. Please do not hesitate to speak with our enrolment representative should you have any questions or concerns prior to the commencement of your course.

The following conditions apply to any refunds:

- Alpine Training reserves the right to cancel or postpone a course prior to its scheduled commencement date, if required. All course fees are to be refunded in full if the RTO is unable to commence the course as agreed due to unforeseen circumstances. Pre-paid fees may be transferred to an alternative enrolment where the student agrees. Alpine Training will notify students in writing as soon as practicable should this occur, and inform students of their rights, and where appropriate how the student may initiate their studies, for example through provision of a list of other training providers offering the course/qualification.
- Where Alpine Training has commenced, but is unable to complete the course due to unforeseen circumstances, any 'unused tuition' fees are to be refunded to the student. Students will be notified in writing as soon as practicable of the cancellation, and will be informed of their rights as above.
- Cooling off period: We provide students with a cooling-off period of 7 days after submitting your application for enrolment. An administration fee may apply for any cancellations within the cooling off period, .
- Students may cancel their enrolment for any reason, up to 7 days (the "cooling off" period) following the submission of their application for enrolment. Please be aware that we may retain a non-refundable administration fee for cancellations within the cooling off period.
- There is never an obligation for a prospective student to enrol in any course or service offered by Alpine Training.
- For information on fees, refunds and whether a cooling off period is applicable for your enrolment, please refer to the terms and conditions for your enrolment.

If you fail to notify Alpine Training of your cancellation in writing you will be deemed as still being enrolled and you will be liable to pay the Course Fee in full. If a student is able to demonstrate that matters beyond their control have resulted in their cancellation then a request for a refund, in full or for a proportion of the fees paid, maybe submitted to Alpine Training for consideration. Any such application will be considered on its merits.

You can find more information within Alpine Training's Student Fees and Refund Policy, available on the Alpine Training website.

Student Support

Our Student Support team is a dedicated team to ensure that any questions you have in regards to your course are answered and addressed in an effective and efficient manner. You can contact our Student Support team through:

Student Support Hotline - 07 3554 1093

This hotline is available for students to contact between 8:30am and 5:00pm AEST. The purpose of the Student Support Hotline is to provide students with support alongside their VET teacher. By calling student support, you will immediately speak with support staff and have your enquiry attended to. All phone calls to this hotline are recorded for quality and coaching purposes.

Please note: The student support team DO NOT answer academic based questions, however they are able to contact a VET teacher who can provide students with this additional support.

Student Support Email – info@alpinetraining.edu.au

If you have an enquiry outside of our Student Support Hotline hours, or are unable to give us a call, you can send us an email. Student Support will respond to your email within 2 business days.

Campus support officers

Our campuses have dedicated Campus Support Offices who are available to provide students with face-to-face support.

Support Services

We currently offer support in:

- Pre-Program interviews;
- Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Recognition of Current Competency (RCC)
- Flexible Learning Options;
- One on one tutoring;
- Alternative assessment strategies;
- Training needs analysis;
- Training premises accessible for people with disabilities;
- Web-site information and
- Other support as required.

WELFARE AND GUIDANCE SERVICES

We will endeavour to provide welfare and guidance to all students/course participants wherever possible. This may include:

- Workplace Health and Safety;
- Review of payment schedules when requested;
- Learning pathways and possible RPL & RCC opportunities;
- Provision for special learning needs;
- Provision for special cultural and religious needs; and
- Provision for special dietary needs. (If meals are included)

DRUG AND ALCOHOL ASSISTANCE

The use and abuse of alcohol and other drugs can have an adverse impact on health, workplaces, resources, families and communities. If students are experiencing problems associated with drug and alcohol abuse, information, counselling and other assistance is available through the 'Alcohol and Drug Foundation (ADF)' info and advice line:

Phone: 1300 85 85 84 or

Lifeline: 13 11 44

Student Assistance Program

Alpine Training has launched the Student Assistance Program (SAP); a program dedicated to providing new and existing students free and confidential counselling services to help with their mental health and well-being.

As a joint initiative with Access EAP, the program is aimed at helping students address an array of life challenges, ideally before they become distractions that affect home life as well as studies with Alpine Training. The service will provide access to a dedicated counselling hotline available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year and 3 complimentary face-to-face counselling sessions.

We understand that there is life outside of studying with Alpine Training, and want to make sure that all our student's mental health and wellbeing needs are being met. Through the Student Assistance Program we facilitate our commitment to helping our students grow, and be the best they can be when studying with us. Common issues that students can receive assistance with include:

- Personal issues
- Work/Life effectiveness
- Relationship issues
- Interpersonal conflict
- Working relationships
- Substance abuse
- Gambling
- Trauma
- Depression
- Grief and loss
- Financial concerns
- Anxiety
- Parenting
- Legal concerns
- Perinatal counselling

SAP is a voluntary confidential and complimentary counselling service. All new and current students undertaking a course at Alpine Training will have full access to SAP services. The services provided are completely confidential where students will not have to reveal their identity and will remain anonymous.

For further information, please contact Alpine Training on 1300 885 791.

Complaints and Appeals

A complaint is made when you are dissatisfied with a service offered or treatment received at Alpine Training.

An appeal is made when you disagree with an assessment result decision made by Alpine Training.

If you make a complaint or appeal;

- The complaint or appeal will be dealt with promptly; the actual length of time involved may vary in accordance with the complexities of the case. Under normal circumstances, you can expect a written response within 10 working days
- You will have the opportunity to present your case at each stage of the procedure
- You have the option of being accompanied/assisted by a third person (such as a family member, friend or counsellor)
- You will not be discriminated against or victimised

Before an issue becomes a formal complaint or appeal

If you have a complaint, you are encouraged, wherever possible, to resolve concerns or difficulties informally with the person(s) concerned. There are staff available to assist the resolution of issues at this level. You can raise an informal complaint by contacting Student Support in person or by phoning 07 3554 1093. Please note that it is not mandatory to raise a complaint informally.

In the event of an assessment being deemed Not Yet Competent, you have two opportunities to correct and resubmit your assessments. You should, wherever possible, try to resolve concerns or difficulties with your VET Teacher at this time. You may raise an informal appeal, prior to receiving a final assessment result, by contacting Student Support in person or by phoning 07 3554 1093.

Formal Complaints and Appeals Procedure

Stage One

- Formal complaints and appeals may be submitted to the Student Support Team in writing or by phone
- Formal complaints and appeals must be recorded on a Complaints/Appeals Record and submitted to the responsible manager
- Appeals must be received by the Compliance Manager within 28 days of the assessment decision
- Receipt of formal complaints and appeals will be acknowledged in writing within 2 working days of receipt
- The responsible Manager will then assess the complaint/appeal, determine the outcome and advise the Complainant/Appellant in writing of their decision within 10 working days. If the complaint/appeal cannot be solved within this time, the complainant will be informed in writing of the reasons within 10 working days and kept up to date on progress

- Where Alpine Training considers more than 60 calendar days are required to process and finalise the complaint or appeal, we will inform the Complainant/Appellant in writing, including why more than 60 days are required, and maintain regular contact with the complainant/appellant on progress
- The Complainant/Appellant has the right to access stage two of this procedure if they are not satisfied with the outcome of Stage One

Stage Two

- If the Complainant/Appellant is not satisfied with the outcome of Stage One, they may lodge their complaint/appeal with the Chief Executive Officer at 27 Tradelink Rd HILLCREST QLD 4118
- Receipt of complaints and appeals lodged with the Chief Executive Officer will be acknowledged in writing within 2 working days of receipt
- The complaint/appeal will be determined by the Chief Executive Officer who is known as the Reviewer
- The Reviewer will conduct all necessary consultations with the Complainant/Appellant and other relevant persons and make a determination of the complaint/appeal. The Complainant/Appellant will be advised in writing of the outcome of their complaint/appeal, including the reasons for the decision within 10 working days. If a complaint/appeal cannot be resolved within this time, the Complainant/Appellant will be informed in writing of the reasons within 10 working days and kept up to date on progress
- Where Alpine Training considers more than 60 calendar days are required to process and finalise the complaint or appeal, we will inform the Complainant/Appellant in writing, including why more than 60 days are required, and maintain regular contact with the complainant/appellant on progress
- The Complainant/Appellant has the right to access stage three of the Complaints and Appeals procedure if they consider the matter unresolved

Stage Three

- If the Complainant / Appellant is not satisfied with the outcome of their appeal, then an independent mediator will be sourced by Alpine Training through LEADR, the Association of Dispute Resolvers.
- The Complainant/Appellant will be required to share the costs of such mediation equally with Alpine Training
- If you are unsatisfied with the outcome of the mediator's decision, then you may contact the National Training Complaints Hotline by:

Phone: 13 38 73, Monday-Friday, 8am, to 6pm nationally

Email: skilling@education.gov.au

The National Training Complaints Hotline will not investigate complaints but will forward complaints to the most appropriate agency, authority or jurisdiction for consideration.

The National Training Complaints Hotline uses the services of the Translating and Interpreting Service and National Relay Service.

- Alpine Training agrees to be bound by the recommendations arising from the external review of the complaint and the Quality Assurance Manager will ensure that any recommendations made are implemented within 30 days of receipt of the recommendations.

Withdrawals

If you wish to withdraw from your course, you must notify us by calling 07 3554 1093. Subject to the cooling off period and any default by Alpine Training in its obligation to provide the course to you, if you wish to withdraw from your enrolment after submitting your application for enrolment, you will not be entitled to any refund of any of the fees, and you will be liable to pay the same for the entire duration of the Course. Alpine Training reserves the right to vary this condition.

If you fail to notify Alpine Training of their withdrawal, you will be liable to pay the course fee in full, as you will be deemed as still enrolled

Deferrals and Extensions

You are able to request to defer or extend your studies; if you find you are experiencing personal difficulties with completing your course, (maximum limits apply). This option is only available to full fee-paying students and not available under State Government funded training initiatives.

To defer your studies, please contact Student Support on 07 3554 1093, and refer to the terms and conditions of your enrolment for more information.

Your Learning Journey

Ensuring that your learning journey with Alpine Training is as rewarding and as productive as possible is forefront in everything we do.

Studying with Alpine Training requires a number of the skills, which you would be expected to demonstrate in your role at work. For example, the ability and discipline to:

- Plan tasks
- Prioritise tasks
- Manage your time
- Organise information in a logical and clear manner

Our VET Teachers

Each student has an allocated VET Teacher to assist and direct you throughout your studies. Your VET Teacher is your first point of contact for questions in regards to your assessments and course content. You will receive your VET Teachers contact details and are able to contact them within business hours.

In order to deliver nationally recognised training our VET Teachers must meet rigorous criteria of competency checks as per the following criteria;

- Hold the TAE40116 Certificate IV in Training and Assessment from the TAE Training and Assessment Training Package as a minimum qualification (or equivalent) and
- Must be able to demonstrate vocational competencies at least to the level being delivered and assessed; and
- Be able to demonstrate how they are continuing to develop their VET knowledge and skills as well as maintaining their industry currency and VET Teachers competency.

Flexible Learning

Flexible learning and assessment procedures form part of the delivery and assessment strategies adopted and implemented by Alpine Training. Where possible, we customise our learning resources to meet the specific needs of all of our students, which ensure a flexible learning process.

Depending on the degree of flexibility involved additional fees may be incurred, but in such an instance you will be made aware of this and the circumstances requiring any such charges will be documented with you and agreed to.

You can choose to study;

- Classroom based: Face to face learning in the classroom, with Print based learning and assessment materials
- Online: Online Learning and Assessments materials
- Blended: Face to face learning in the classroom with online assessments
- Correspondence: Students will receive their work books through post and mail assessments back to Alpine Training
- Workplace: Face to face learning in the workplace, with Print based learning and assessment materials

Please discuss your delivery and assessment requirements with your Alpine Training VET Teacher and, where possible, alternate delivery/assessment strategies can be provided which may include components of on-the-job, off-the-job, assignments, distance education and e-learning. Learners' Guides and course support material are available for all units.

Attendance

Alpine Training expects students to attend all scheduled training sessions or visits. Non-attendance will impact on your ability to complete assessments and/or the course successfully. Student attendance is recorded and monitored for all courses.

Students are obliged to notify their VET Teacher if they know that they are going to be absent from any session or visit, or to call Alpine Training to advise course administration staff.

In the unlikely event that Alpine Training is compelled to postpone a course/training session then our administration staff will contact the students/course participants/clients as soon as practicable, either by phone or text message and by email (if available), to advise of any change and the circumstances requiring it.

Rights and Responsibilities

Every student has the right to be treated fairly and equitably, and students also have the responsibility to respect the rights of one another and of all Alpine Training personnel and Training staff. Students will not be placed in a position that compromises their personal dignity or personal safety. Clear educational rationale and established procedures and protocols form the basis of all activities which students are required to undertake.

Students must always remain aware that discrimination of any nature including sexual, religious and cultural harassment, and bullying of any nature and on any level or by any medium are all unacceptable and will not be permitted or tolerated. They are socially unacceptable and likely to create an offensive, intimidating or hostile environment, and are contrary to the educational and operational policies of Alpine Training. Every Student of Alpine Training is encouraged to be sensitive of and towards their training environment, their student cohort, their VET Teachers, people working within Alpine Training and with whom they may have contact.

Alpine Training and our personnel and representatives will go out of our way to respect, uphold and protect your rights and we expect no less of you in return.

YOUR RIGHTS

All students have the right to:

- Expect the education and training they receive will be of a quality consistent with the Standards for Registered Training Organisations 2015, and contractual requirements by relevant state funding guidelines
- Be informed about personal information that is collected about them and the right to review and correct that information
- Access to a provider's consumer protection complaints system

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

All students have responsibilities, including but not limited to:

- Provide accurate information to the provider
- Behave in a responsible and ethical manner

OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

All providers have obligations, including but not limited to:

- Provide the training and support necessary to allow the student to achieve competency
- Provide a quality training and assessment experience for all students
- Provide a clear and accessible feedback and consumer protection system
- Maintain information

ACCESS AND EQUITY

Alpine Training provides equal opportunity and affirmative action in employment and education.

All of our personnel have a responsibility to uphold and maintain the highest possible standards of access and equity for all learners and clients. All staff required to act in accordance with our Code of Practice and all students/course participants/learners and clients are made aware of their rights and responsibilities through this student handbook.

We recognise the principles of access and equity and the rights of all people to be treated in a fair and equitable manner. Alpine Training undertakes to ensure all students and employees are treated equitably and are not subject to discrimination or harassment.

Alpine Training also ensures that people who make complaints are not victimised in any way. Alpine Training strives to provide full and equal participation for all students and staff and to foster learning and working environment which values diversity, encourages acceptance, is free of discrimination and free of harassment.

Consumer Protection

Students as consumers play an important role in promoting quality training. This is why it is important for you as a student to know your rights when undertaking training and how to provide us feedback to help resolve any issues you may have.

Student Code of Conduct

All students/course participants enrolled in any Alpine Training course or using the services of Alpine Training are required to maintain appropriate standards of conduct at all times. Improper or inappropriate behaviour includes, but is not restricted to;

- Consuming or having consumed alcohol and other drugs,
- Persistent disruptive behaviour,
- Abusive conduct, verbally abusive or hostile behaviour,
- Physical assault on a member of administration or training staff or other students or any behaviour which is perceived to be threatening,
- Smoking or the use of prohibited or illegal substances,
- Deliberate misuse of Alpine Training equipment or materials,
- Behaviour of a discriminatory, bullying or harassing nature,
- Carriage, use or being in possession of a prescribed or regulated weapon or dangerous article of any nature,
- Theft from staff or students at any Alpine Training facility,
- Wilful or malicious damage to Alpine Training property or equipment,
- Wilfully or accidentally activating fire or security alarms which result in the calling out of emergency services.

Where behaviour is deemed to be improper or inappropriate, Alpine Training will take necessary action, which could include counselling, verbal warning, written warning and/or removal from the course.

Training Room Behaviour

Alpine Training requires behaviour in any of its Training Rooms, including online environments, to be conducive to promoting a positive learning environment, a cooperative spirit and harmony. Alpine Training is committed to providing a learning environment free of discrimination and harassment. Any conduct or behaviour which causes a disturbance, affront or offence by any student/course participant may result in that person(s) being removed from the Training Room by an authorised representative of Alpine Training or the Alpine Training VET Teacher.

Studying On-line

Participants enrolled in on-line education bring to their studies widely different skills, experiences, motivations and goals. The amount of time people require to complete the program varies considerably.

We recommend you prepare a plan in which you allow time for scheduled events such as holidays and also allow time for contingencies. Don't let your assessments build up.

Time management is essential for productive on-line learning. The time you require to understand and apply the topic will vary depending on your present experience and skills.

Please note that not all competencies or qualifications are available through the on-line mode of delivery, please refer to our website at www.alpinetraining.edu.au before proceeding with an on-line learning option.

A word to the wise: many learners embark on the on-line learning option because they think it might be easier but be aware on-line learning requires the same amount of your time as the face to face training, if not more.

Disciplinary Proceedings

Alpine Training actively promotes an environment in which students develop a positive and responsible attitude toward training, VET Teachers, to customers and colleagues. To preserve and maintain this environment Alpine Training supports a system of informed consequences for actions. As part of this the business supports a system of informed consequence for actions.

A disciplinary procedure exists for the proper management of disciplinary issues. The procedure is designed to ensure fairness and objectivity and its primary purpose is not intended as a form of punishment but as a means of providing students/course participants with the opportunity to correct or modify their behaviour through fair and objective means. In which regard, we encourage all students/course participants to refer to the Code of Conduct within this document.

Student Records and Privacy of Student Information

Alpine Training takes the privacy of students very seriously and complies with all legislative requirements. These include the Privacy Act 1988 and Australian Privacy Principles (effective from 12th March 2014).

Here's what you need to know:

- Alpine Training will retain personal information about you relating to your enrolment with us. This includes your personal details, your ethnicity and individual needs, your education background. We will also retain records of your training activity and are required to do this in accordance with the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011.
- Your personal information is retained within our hard copy filing system and our computer systems. Your information is collected via the application form and through your completion of administrative related forms and based on your training outcomes. Hard copy files are secured in lockable filing cabinets which are monitored throughout the day and secured in the evening. Electronic data retained on our computer systems is protected via virus protection software and firewall protection. Our data is backed up continuously to our server which is secure.
- Alpine Training is required by the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011 to securely retain your personal details for a period of 30 years from the date your enrolment has completed. The purpose of this is to enable your participation in accredited training to be recorded for future reference and to allow you to obtain a record of your outcome if required.
- In some cases we are required by law to make student information available to Government agencies such as the National Centre for Vocational Education and Research or the Australian Skills Quality Authority. In all other cases Alpine Training will seek the written permission of the student for such disclosure. Alpine Training will not disclose your information to any person or organisation unless we have written instructions from you to do so. If you require your records to be accessed by persons such as your parents, you need to authorise this access otherwise this access will be denied.
- You have the right to access information that Alpine Training is retaining that relates to you. Further instructions are provided on how to access records within the section titled "Access to your records".

If you have concerns about how Alpine Training is managing your personal information, we encourage you to inform our staff and discuss your concerns. You are also encouraged to make a complaint directly to us using our internal complaint handling arrangements outlined in this handbook. Under the Privacy Act 1988 (Privacy Act) you also have the right to make a complaint to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC) about the handling of your personal information. You can find more information about making a privacy complaint at the website of the OAIC located at:

<http://www.oaic.gov.au/privacy/privacy-complaints>

For more information on how we protect your privacy, please refer to the 'Student Privacy Notice' found on our website.

Access to Personal Records

Alpine Training ensures that all information and documents related to you are kept private and confidential. Before allowing access to personal records, Alpine Training will confirm your identity by ensuring you have submitted:

- The access to personal information form, fully completed and signed
- A current copy of your photo ID

If a third party is requesting information in regards to your studies, Alpine Training will ensure:

- The third party provides a signed release of personal information form. This form is provided from the organisation that acts as an agreement between the organisation and the student allowing the organisation to access their records.

All forms will be saved to your file to ensure that only verified and approved documents and information is released.

If you require access to your information in regards to your studies, please contact Student Support.

Electronic Equipment

The use of electronic equipment such as mobile phones, iPods, Kindles and MP3 players are not permitted in any Alpine Training room by students or staff, unless they are a specific and declared requirement of a class.

Please note the following;

- Laptops or tablets are permitted to be used provided it is relevant to the class.
- The use of a dictionary and calculator by students/course participants in any class is permitted.
- Students may connect their laptop or tablet device or any other portable device, to the Alpine Training Student Wi-Fi access point, where it is a requirement of their class to have internet access.
- Students may not utilise the Alpine Training Student Wi-Fi access points for non-course purposes, including but not limited to the download of movie or music files, or any other use deemed inappropriate by Alpine Training staff. Where use of the Alpine Training Wi-Fi access points is deemed to be improper or inappropriate, Alpine Training will take necessary action, which could include counselling, verbal warning, written warning and/or removal from the course.
- Students will need to ask their VET Teacher for access details.

Work Health and Safety

Alpine Training is committed to providing a safe and healthy workplace for all students/course participants, clients, employees, contractors and visitors and we adhere to all relevant government legislation. Individuals have a responsibility to take care of the health and safety of themselves and others and to comply with company Workplace Health and Safety policy and risk management procedures. In the interests of staff and student safety, it's important that our enrolled participants ensure that their friends and family members, who are not themselves enrolled, do not attend training sessions facilitated by Alpine Training. All accidents, near misses or unsafe working practices or conditions must be immediately reported to your VET Teacher.

Expectations of students and employers (Traineeships)

The training delivered by Alpine Training is competency based which means that students/course participants are assessed on the skills which they can demonstrate, the tasks that they can perform and any underpinning knowledge they have gained to effectively perform their work. It is essential that students/course participants and their employer, where appropriate, be thoroughly familiar with the content of the student handbook.

Alpine Training is to be notified of any changes of circumstances or problems which affect the ability of the student/course participant to complete the traineeship or course.

The student is obliged to:

- Maintain contact with your VET Teacher via face to face visits, phone or email to keep them advised of your progress.
- Gather a range of evidence as you progress through your Course.
- Complete the training and assessment tasks set for you, and ensure you have the tasks completed as directed by the VET Teachers and bring the tasks to the next session/visit.
- Seek feedback from your workplace supervisor (if applicable) and the VET Teacher on your progress.
- Meet attendance and behaviour requirements.
- Seek assistance if you are experiencing difficulties - refer to the section on Support Services
- As a student/course participant you are responsible for notifying your VET Teacher if you are unable to keep an appointment with a minimum of 24 hours' notice.

Applicable to on-the-job training only/ the employer has the responsibility to:

- Providing a safe working environment.
- The provision and delivery of instruction in the on-the-job-training.
- Providing 'hands-on' experience and a full range of work and appropriate facilities for the learner to acquire the knowledge and skills needed to complete the traineeship/course
- If you are on a traineeship provide trainees with sufficient time for the purpose of undertaking formal training/learning/assessment activities and developing competencies aligned to work based tasks (as per the Traineeship - Training Plan)
- The supervision, practice and support needed to develop skills.
- Co-ordinating workplace training and assessment so that it fits in with the learner's everyday work and their training.
- Liaising with the VET Teacher regarding formal assessment times and methods.
- Signing the learner's training plan, assessment visit reports and supervisor reports.
- Retaining a copy of the Training Plan in the workplace and having this documentation available if a State Training Services training officer asks to see a copy.

Your Assessment Process

Where possible, in relation to workplace based education, Assessment tasks are designed for completion as work based tasks, giving students the opportunity to apply their learning in their day to day work situations.

Vocational competency is defined as broad industry knowledge and experience, usually combined with a relevant industry qualification. A person who has vocational competency will be familiar with the content of the vocation and will have relevant current experience in the industry. Vocational competency must be considered on an industry-by-industry basis and with reference to any guidance provided in the relevant Training Package or Accredited Course.

In competency based Assessment you may be deemed as 'competent' or 'not yet competent'. In the event that you are deemed 'not yet competent', additional support will be provided to help you to complete the particular unit and prepare for an additional Assessment event.

Assessment in a Unit of Competency is made up of a number of tasks. You will need to complete and be found satisfactory in each task in order to fully complete the Unit of Competency and receive a Competent result.

Progression

Your progression through your chosen course will be monitored at all times. If you fall behind the benchmarked progress targets, your VET Teacher will contact you to discuss any difficulties you are having and what support we can provide to assist you maintain your progress towards completing your training.

You will be considered to be making unsatisfactory course progression if you:

- have not engaged in any learning or assessment activities for three consecutive months, and/or
- fail to achieve competency in the same unit three times; or
- do not complete your program of learning within the maximum course duration as specified in the course information provided in the relevant course outline, and on the website; or
- are deemed to be an unsafe practitioner at any point during, or following work placement/work experience.

If you are at risk of not making satisfactory course progression, you may be offered extra support through the implementation of an intervention strategy. The extra support may include one or more of the following:

- Learning support / Academic skilling
- Strategies identified by the LLN instrument completed by the student for the qualification they are enrolled in
- Counselling
- Disability support
- IT support
- Academic program support

Your progression will be monitored on the basis of your course results in relation to your progress and professional practice in relation to work placement/work experience. No other factors are taken into account when identifying students at risk of not progressing.

If you are having trouble, please don't wait to be identified as at risk of not progressing. Talk to your VET Teacher about additional support that may be suitable for you, or speak to the Student Support team. You can also access the Student Progression Policy available on our website <http://alpinetraining.edu.au>

How much time should I spend on my Assessments?

Depending on the level of the qualification you are studying, your VET Teacher will use different criteria to assess your work. Generally, the higher your qualification is the more time will be required to successfully achieve the qualification. The qualification is made up of assessments which comprise of either one unit of competency or a cluster of competencies.

Set yourself approximately

- 3 – 5 hours to complete a Certificate III assessment
- 6 – 12 hours for a Certificate IV assessment
- 10 – 20 hours for a Diploma assessment
- 15 – 25 hours for an Advanced Diploma assessment

Please note, these are guidelines only, you may find you spend more or less time on an assessment depending upon your experience and your direct exposure to or involvement with the subject matter in the workplace.

Generally, participants enrolled in a qualification will be made aware of their course's schedule in advance, including the assessment due dates.

Alpine Training recommends participants work out a study plan, as time management is incredibly important. We fully appreciate that sometimes it's not all that easy to combine work, family and study.

With employment based learning we recommend talking to your manager about study time and assessment due dates. Remember, your employer wants you to achieve qualifications and develop your skills – if you don't seek their understanding and support then they can't help you.

What am I being asked to do?

The table below provides a description of key assessment terms:

Term	Meaning
Analyse	Break the subject down into its parts and then consider each individually and/or the inter-relationships which exist between all or each of those parts
Choose	Carefully consider then pick one
Comment	Make sound, logical and considered critical observations or comments about the subject
Describe	Provide a description of facts, processes and events. Do not attempt to explain, interpret or analyse them, be objective
Discuss	Examine both sides of the concept or theory; for and against. Back up with examples of what happens in your workplace. Or use the "strengths and weaknesses" format to do so
Explain	In your own words, clearly describe the details / facts of the scenario or concept by using relevant workplace examples
List	Make a dot point list of items, one after another (like a shopping list or footy ladder)
Outline	A snapshot or an overview which covers the broad points but without going into too much detail
Review	Re-examine, analyse and comment briefly, in an organised sequence and in an objective manner, on the major points of an issue
State	In your own words, clearly and objectively

Participant responsibilities

The integrity of Alpine Training's qualifications is maintained by the rigorous application of assessment principles. It is the responsibility of participants, and their manager and/ or Learning and Development person, to ensure they meet specified course requirements in order to achieve the desired qualification. Prospective participants can obtain a copy of these requirements prior to enrolment.

We offer assistance from our qualified staff wherever we possibly can and they can assist participants with advice and support throughout their program of study.

It is essential that participants have the ability to work independently in preparation for assessment tasks.

Research proves that students who maintain at least an 80% attendance rate have a far greater chance of success in completing their qualifications. Pressures of work and business commitments cannot be taken into consideration in the marking of the assessment and therefore when attending Face to face programs at Alpine Training, participants should aim to maintain minimum of 80% classroom attendance.

It is highly recommended that you always keep a copy of your assessments in event that your work is lost in transit.

WHAT WILL THE VET TEACHER BE LOOKING FOR?

This depends on the level of your qualification. Use the table below as a reference to guide you with your assessment.

Handwritten work is generally only acceptable up to Certificate III level as it has little emphasis on the use of technology to support business operations; Certificate III onwards requires demonstration of technology which can be supported by submitting your assessments electronically whenever possible.

In the case of handwritten work, it is your responsibility to ensure you have a copy of your work in event of your assessment being misplaced or lost in transit.

Certificate II (AQF level 2)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Your answers may include lists using bullet points, sentences and short paragraphs, tables, etc. Examples on how you perform a range of tasks, where you choose between appropriate options. If you use material from other sources, the material must be referenced. For example: Smith, J (2012) assessment for BSBWHS201
Certificate III (AQF level 3)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Your answers may include lists using bullet points, sentences and short paragraphs, tables, etc. Examples on how you perform processes using your developed skills whilst demonstrating discretion and professional judgement within your role. If you use material from other sources, the material must be referenced. For example: Smith, J (2012) assessment for BSBADM302
Certificate IV (AQF level 4)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Your answers may include lists using bullet points, sentences and short paragraphs, tables, etc. Examples of how you apply concepts at work are required, utilising a wide variety of contexts. The examples you give must be realistic and achievable for the organisation where you work. If you use material from other sources, the material must be referenced. For example: Smith, J (2012) assessment for BSBADM409
Diploma (AQF level 5)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Reference to training concepts and how you have applied (or may apply) them at work is expected. Answers may include bullet points, however, descriptive answers are expected. Your work should also be typed. Work-based examples are expected. A complete description of any attachments is expected. Examples of how you have analysed, diagnosed, designed and executed accountability and understanding of a wide range of specialised technical, creative and conceptual skills. Your work must be clearly referenced. For example: Smith, J (2012) assessment for BSBPMG522
Advanced Diploma (AQF level 6)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Your answers must demonstrate your understanding of the specified knowledge from the area you are studying. Examples of how you have analysed, diagnosed, designed and executed accountability and understanding of a wide range of specialised technical, creative and conceptual skills. Work-based examples are expected. A complete description of any attachments is expected. Your work must be clearly referenced. For example: Smith, J (2012) assessment for BSBWHS604

What is evidence? When do I include evidence in my Assessment?

The term Evidence refers to the collection of documents and possibly other materials that you compile and submit to support your demonstration of competency.

Evidence is required for all Tasks/Workplace projects within an assessment, it is proof that you can put what you are saying into practice. Your evidence should reflect and support your answer for the task and be referenced clearly.

Types of evidence that you choose to include in your assessment may include (but are not limited to):

- Samples of work completed
- Minutes of meetings
- Corporate policies
- Planning schedules

- Calendar notations
- Completed answers within your learning materials provided
- Descriptions by you of relevant experiences
- Copies of emails that demonstrate processes undertaken in the example/s discussed in your assessment responses
- Video of you demonstrating the skills being assessed
- Any other 'evidence' that you feel will adequately demonstrate competency

Please ensure that you reference all evidence that you use.

How do I choose what evidence to include in my assessment?

When deciding what evidence to include in your assessment, consider the “show and tell” approach:

Tell us... This is your assessment answer it is sometimes called a narrative. (anecdotal evidence)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Self-assessment/narrative. Tell us: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What you know 2. What you can do 3. What you have done Some of this content could be addressed by you answering the questions in your learning material • Third-party reports (i.e. reference letters, performance reviews, etc.). Someone else tells us: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What you know 2. What you can do 3. What you have done.
Show us... (documentary evidence)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Documents or other forms of evidence that demonstrate what you can do and have done. Here, consider evidence of both products and processes: For example, when compiling evidence of your ability to develop a project plan: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. An example of a product as evidence is the project plan 2. Examples of a process as evidence may include your story describing the process you went through to develop the plan, plus: 3. Copies of emails that document discussions or debates about the development of the project plan content and/or 4. Minutes of meetings discussing division of tasks etc. 5. Previous drafts of the project plan with hand-written edits.
Don't send us...	You must ensure that you never send any commercially sensitive documents such as financial statements or strategic plans. Sensitive elements can be deleted, alternatively, in some instances, a hypothetical example may be sufficient. Also, please ensure you always keep copies of all attachments and any pieces of evidence you provide.

How do I know if I have the 'right' evidence?

Your VET Teacher will evaluate the quality of the evidence that you submit. When you have compiled your assessment and are ready to submit it first consider asking yourself the following questions:

1. Is it valid? Does it demonstrate the skills and knowledge that I am being assessed in, and not other, irrelevant skills and knowledge?
2. Is it current? Was most of my evidence completed within the past five years, and was a significant portion of my evidence completed within the past year?

Important Note: Some Industry sectors (Training Package owners) may only accept evidence from the last 12 to 24 months.
3. Is it sufficient? Does it:
 - a. address all the required Elements of competency
 - b. provide a picture of consistent performance of the assessed competencies over time?
4. Is it authentic? Can I prove that the evidence submitted is my own work?
5. Does it show that I can perform the task(s) being assessed? Copies of actual documents or, in some situations, a well-written reference letter from your current employer may be enough to demonstrate this. In some situations it can be attendance records and observation findings from your work experience placement.

If you can answer "yes" to all of the above questions, then you have probably selected the 'right' evidence but please don't rely on this to determine suitability, you must objectively assess the relevance of the precise material you intending submitting. It is your responsibility to do this.

Referencing your evidence

When arranging your assessment for submission you need to ensure you reference your evidence clearly and logically:

- Where you discuss evidence in your assessment answer, make sure you label this clearly and refer to the correct appendix/attachments
- In the Appendix/Attachments ensure the evidence is also labelled with the task/s the evidence is referring to.

For example:

- In the assessment answer:

"I sent out a meeting agenda outlining the process I planned for the team to go through to develop a new team mission statement. During this meeting I took comprehensive minutes reflecting what was said and produced during the meeting (please see Appendix 2 for a copy of the meeting agenda and the minutes)"

- In the appendix/attachments:

"Appendix 2: Meeting agenda and meeting minutes demonstrating the process I planned for developing a new team mission statement for Task 4"

Helpful tips for Completing Assessments

Here are some tips for completing your assessments.

Be Professional	If the quality of your work would not be acceptable to a manager, then it is unlikely to meet the assessment standards required. Make sure your work is organised and easy to read.
Read the Instructions	Make sure you understand what is required. Read through the tasks when you receive them. If you are unsure of what is required ask your VET Teacher for clarification. Make sure you are on the right track by asking your VET Teacher for feedback prior to submitting your final answer.
Obtain all necessary signatures and dates	Make sure you and your work place supervisor, if applicable, have signed and dated your assessment everywhere you're asked to. Signatures and dates are also vital on attached evidence relating to any agreements or action plans made with staff.
Make a Copy	Make a copy of your assessment. If your assessment is misplaced, it is your responsibility to provide another copy.
Proof read	Proof read written answers; check that what you've written actually says what you mean.
Participate Fully	Participate fully in any group assessments and ensure your answers are in your own words. Remember, the assessment is designed to prove you have the skills and knowledge required, not that you can get the answers from other people.
Answer ALL the questions FULLY	You are expected to attempt every question and task. If you are unable to answer based on your current role, please think into the future. One word answers are not acceptable unless asked for. Sometimes a question may have more than one part to it so always be careful to study and consider the question before preparing your response For example: 'List the three barriers to communication and discuss one method to overcome each of those barriers'.
In your Own Words	Copying directly from the manual or other sources will result in you having to resubmit the assessment. If working with a colleague or in a group, make sure you each answer in your own words. You are not permitted to share or trade answers unless specifically prearranged with your Alpine Training VET Teacher.
Answer from YOUR perspective	Use "I" wherever possible because your VET Teacher wants to know what YOU did, how YOU did it, why YOU did it and how well YOU did it.
Be specific	When asked to provide an example from your workplace, be specific . Try to avoid broad, generalised statements about what happens generally in the workplace. Discuss a specific actual example. Explain clearly – remember that your VET Teacher does not know about your work place's processes and procedures unless you tell them.
Provide proof	Evidence is proof of what you are saying that you are able to put into practice. You MUST provide evidence for all workplace tasks/projects.

Complete templates	If attaching templates , please fill out and complete the templates showing what you have done/would do in the workplace to show how you have/would use the template. Empty templates are not acceptable.
Type Your Answers	Handwritten work is generally only acceptable up to Certificate III level.
Practice	Practise practical skills so you are comfortable performing the required tasks during your assessment.
Label your evidence clearly	Please label attachments clearly with the unit code/name, question or task number and add a heading including a brief description (one sentence) to each piece of evidence to explain what the evidence is showing and why or how it is relevant.
Submit your assessment correctly	Make sure you understand how your final answer is to be submitted.
Plan Ahead	Make sure your VET Teacher receives your assessment by the due date. Plan ahead around any family or work commitments and give yourself enough time to complete them. Your Program Outline will give you the dates your assessments are due, if you're unsure, check with your VET Teacher.
Don't Leave it to the Last Minute	If required, give your supervisor as much time as possible to complete any supervisors reports.
Don't Let Assessments Build Up	If you are experiencing difficulties talk to your VET Teacher
Double Check	Check your assessment before you submit it. Make sure that you have; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completed all the tasks. • Put your name on each assessment task, unless submitting it online. • Securely attached all documentation, if handing in paper based assessments.

Submitting your Assessment to Alpine Training

SUBMITTING HARDCOPY ASSESSMENTS

Make sure you have;

- Followed the Helpful Tips above
- Made a copy of your entire assessment, including all attachments, appendices, evidence and annexures. If your assessment is misplaced for any reason, it is your responsibility to submit it again. If you make a copy, you won't have to redo it.
- Organised and label your assessment and attachments so your VET Teacher can understand what you are submitting
- Staple all your paperwork together securely.
- Do not submit assessments in display books, binders, folders or only clipped together.

You can submit your assessments by;

1. Handing your assessment to your VET Teacher.
2. Mailing to your local Campus;

- Followed the Helpful Tips above
- Keep a copy of any evidence you upload. If these are misplaced for any reason, it is your responsibility to submit them again. If you make a copy, you won't have to redo it.
- Make sure you save your assessment. Click the box "Save My Answer" before you click the box "Submit Assessment"

Employability Skills as part of your Qualification

Employability Skills are skills which apply across a variety of jobs, job roles and life contexts. They are sometimes referred to as key skills, core skills, life skills, essential skills, key competencies, necessary skills, and transferable skills. Industry's preferred term for them is Employability Skills.

Employability Skills are defined as "skills required not only to gain employment, but also to progress within an enterprise so as to achieve one's potential and contribute successfully to enterprise strategic directions".

There are eight principal Employability Skills:

- communication
- teamwork
- problem solving
- initiative and enterprise
- planning and organising
- self-management
- learning
- technology.

Re-Submission and Re-Assessment Guidelines

There are two (2) outcomes of assessments: S = Satisfactory and NS = Not Satisfactory (requires more training and experience).

Students will be awarded C = Competent on completion of the unit when the VET Teacher is satisfied that the student has completed all assessments and has provided the appropriate evidence required to meet all criteria. If the student fails to meet this requirement, he or she will receive the result NYC = Not Yet Competent and will be eligible to be re-assessed.

RE-SUBMISSION

If your assessment task has been returned marked 'Not Satisfactory', please DON'T PANIC!

'Not Yet Satisfactory' could simply mean your VET Teacher needs to see more information or it could be that you've missed a part of the questions. You can resubmit your assessment.

You are allowed two (2) re-submission. If you're unsure or have any questions in this your VET Teacher is available and happy to assist you.

RE-ASSESSMENT

Students will be allowed one (1) further attempt at an assessment for which the outcome is Not Yet Competent. An additional fee for reassessment may apply.

Make sure you refer to the tips for completing your assessment above, they also apply to any resubmissions. Before re-submitting any assessment, please ensure you complete the checklist below.

Tick when Complete	Work through the following steps to complete your resubmission

Plagiarism

You should not attempt to pass off work of another person as your own. It should be possible for a reader to check the information and ideas which you have used by referring to the original source material.

In which regard, you must make note and acknowledge material or content from a third party source, of any nature, used by you and that notation should be sufficiently accurate to enable the source to be easily located and checked. If you are unsure of how to make an acknowledgement, then please ask your Alpine Training VET Teacher.

In the event that plagiarism is discovered then the offending assessment involved will be deemed as being “not yet competent” and penalties may apply. These can include formal counselling, a verbal and written warning and removal from the course. You will be instructed to resubmit a completed and compliant assessment task should you not be removed from the course.

Copyright

Alpine Training adheres to the rules which exist for Training Institutions under the Copyright Act 1968. Students should be aware that any reproduction of course materials, text books or journals without the prior written consent of Alpine Training is a breach of Copyright Laws and, where necessary, will pursue the remedies available to us under the Act and its Regulations to protect our rights and entitlements.

Work Placement

Work Placement allows students to gain skills, knowledge and experience within their chosen field of study. It also allows students to put in practice the theoretical components of the qualification they are completing.

Work placement is a compulsory requirement of a number of qualifications. You will be advised if work placement is a requirement for the course you have chosen.

Students are encouraged to find a work placement facility, however if you are unable to secure a work placement facility, our Student Support Team will work with you to secure a suitable placement facility where work placement is required.

Working with Children / Vulnerable People Requirements

You will have to ensure that you have met any State requirements / police checks for Working with Children or Vulnerable People applicable to the industry in which you will be working prior to commencing work placement. Your Program Outline will provide further information applicable to the qualification you are enrolled in.

WORK PLACEMENT PACK

You will receive the following to complete work placement:

- Work Placement Pack- Including;
 - your Work Placement Agreement form,
 - Employer Guide
 - Current insurance paperwork
 - Relevant placement workbooks and paper work
 - Work Placement Shirt

RESPONSIBILITIES ON WORK PLACEMENT

While on work placement, or wearing the Alpine Training Work Placement Shirt, you are representing yourself and Alpine Training. You are expected to behave in a respectful, professional manner at all times.

While on work placement you are expected to;

- Follow the host organisation rules and follow all reasonable instructions of the organisation and their staff.
- Be punctual, courteous and act in a manner appropriate to a workplace for allocated shifts and roster times as determined by the host organisation. For example, telephone the host organisation and the Alpine Training contact person if you are going to be absent, preferably in advance, otherwise as early as possible.
- Comply with all legislative and policy requirements of the host organisation. Such requirements may include occupational health and safety matters, maintaining commercial confidentiality or privacy of personal information.
- Comply with all work health and safety policies and legislation, including wearing protective clothing and using safety equipment as directed by the host organisation or their staff.
- Take reasonable care to protect your own health and safety and the health and safety of others in the workplace. This includes not consuming alcohol or drugs, which may constitute a risk to personal safety or the safety of others.
- Report all incidents and accidents to the host organisation and to Alpine Training as soon as possible after the event. An incident form must be completed to document this, as well as any other reporting requirements of the host organisation.
- Obtain all medical treatment deemed necessary by a medical practitioner if you are injured while on placement. (Note that you are responsible for the cost of all medical expenses covered by Medicare, or a combination of Medicare and private health funds, in respect of injuries, including the gap between the cost of medical treatment and Medicare/private health fund payments).

Refer to your Work Placement Agreement which fully outlines your responsibilities while on work placement, as well as those of Alpine Training and your host organisation.

Your Graduation

Issuing Qualifications and Statements of Attainment

Assessment will determine whether a student is Competent or Not Yet Competent in their particular course. On successful completion of their course, students will be issued with a Certificate and a Transcript, listing the units deemed competent.

A Statement of Attainment is issued to students who have demonstrated competency and satisfied the requirements of one or more Units of Competency, short of full qualification requirements.

Reprints of Qualifications

At any time after completing your Course, you may request a re-print of your Qualification or Statement of Attainment. The request must be in writing and a fee of $50 per re-print applies, plus any postage fees. Proof of identity is required when requesting a re-print.

Graduations

Students are offered the opportunity to attend a graduation ceremony, which Alpine Training hosts across the country. You will be advised when and where your graduation will be held.

Further Information

Legislation

As a requirement of the Standards for Registered Training Organisations 2015, Alpine Training must ensure it stays up to date with all relevant legislation administered by all State governments in the states where the training is delivered.

Alpine Training is subject to legislation related to training and assessment as well as general business practice. This legislation governs our obligations as a Registered Training Organisation (RTO), our obligations to students, and relates to the industry in which we conduct training. This legislation is continually being updated and all Alpine Training representatives are made aware of these changes as they occur. The legislation that particularly affects the delivery of our training and assessment services at present are discussed below.

The Quality Assurance team at Alpine Training maintain a listing of all applicable legislation affecting the delivery of our services across the country. Our staff are informed of changes to legislation through our internal governance activities (team meetings, professional development sessions, and the company's intranet).

If participants require any further information regarding relevant legislation, please contact Alpine Training.

We've included a summary of important legislation, and the requirements that Alpine Training is required to meet under each legislative act.

National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011

The Act provides a range of sanctions of increasing severity, escalating from enforceable undertakings and additional conditions on registration through to suspending or cancelling the registration of an RTO.

ASQA will apply these powers and sanctions with proportion, rigor, fairness and consistency.

Student Identifiers Act 2014

The USI will allow all of an individual's training records, entered in the national vocational education and training (VET) data collection, to be linked. The USI makes it easier for students to find, collate and authenticate their VET achievements into a single transcript. It will also ensure that students' VET records are not lost.

Work Health and Safety Act. 2011 (NSW, QLD, NT), Work Health and Safety Act 2012 (ACT, SA, TAS), Occupational Safety and Health Act 1984 (WA), Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 (VIC)

The main object of this Act is to provide for a balanced and nationally consistent framework to secure the health and safety of workers and workplaces by:

- (a) Protecting workers and other persons against harm to their health, safety and welfare through the elimination or minimisation of risks arising from work; and
- (b) Providing for fair and effective workplace representation, consultation, co-operation and issue resolution in relation to work health and safety; and
- (c) encouraging unions and employer organisations to take a constructive role in promoting improvements in work health and safety practices, and assisting persons conducting businesses or undertakings and workers to achieve a healthier and safer working environment; and
- (d) Promoting the provision of advice, information, education and training in relation to work health and safety; and
- (e) Securing compliance with this Act through effective and appropriate compliance and enforcement measures; and

(f) Ensuring appropriate scrutiny and review of actions taken by persons exercising powers and performing functions under this Act; and

(g) Providing a framework for continuous improvement and progressively higher standards of work health and safety; and

(h) Maintaining and strengthening the national harmonisation of laws relating to work health and safety and to facilitate a consistent national approach to work health and safety in this jurisdiction. (2) In furthering subsection (1)(a), regard must be had to the principle that workers and other persons should be given the highest level of protection against harm to their health, safety and welfare from hazards and risks arising from work as is reasonably practicable.

Competition and Consumer Act 2010

The Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (CCA) covers most areas of the market: the relationships between suppliers, wholesalers, retailers, and consumers. Its purpose is to enhance the welfare of Australians by promoting fair trading and competition, and through the provision of consumer protections.

Broadly, it covers:

- product safety and labelling
- unfair market practices
- price monitoring
- industry codes
- industry regulation – airports, electricity, gas, telecommunications
- mergers and acquisitions.

Disability Discrimination Act 1992

To eliminate, as far as possible, discrimination against persons on the ground of disability in the areas of: work, accommodation, education, access to premises, clubs and sport; and the provision of goods, facilities, services and land; and existing laws; and the administration of Commonwealth laws and programs; and to ensure, as far as practicable, that persons with disabilities have the same rights to equality before the law as the rest of the community; and to promote recognition and acceptance within the community of the principle that persons with disabilities have the same fundamental rights as the rest of the community.

Racial Discrimination Act 1975

Racial discrimination occurs under the RDA when someone is treated less fairly than someone else in a similar situation because of their race, colour, descent or national or ethnic origin. Racial discrimination can also occur when a policy or rule appears to treat everyone in the same way but actually has an unfair effect on more people of a particular race, colour, descent or national or ethnic origin than others.

Sex Discrimination Act 1984

The Act seeks to create recognition and acceptance within the community of the principle of the equality of men and women.

Age Discrimination Act 2004 (Cth)

The Age Discrimination Act aims to ensure that all Australians – young and old and everyone in between – are treated equally and have the same opportunities as others. The Act protects you against discrimination in many areas of public life, including:

- employment – getting a job, terms and conditions of a job, training, promotion, being dismissed
- education – enrolling or studying in a course at a private or public school, college or university
- accommodation – renting or buying a house or unit

- getting or using services – such as banking and insurance services, services provided by government departments, transport or telecommunication services, professional services like those provided by lawyers, doctors or tradespeople, services provided by restaurants, shops or entertainment venues.

Anti-Discrimination Act 1977 (NSW only)

It's stated purpose is 'to render unlawful racial, sex and other types of discrimination in certain circumstances and to promote equality of opportunity between all persons'.

Privacy Act 1988 and Australian Privacy Principles (2014)

Australians have a right to know why such information about them is being acquired, and who will see the information. Those in charge of storing the information have obligations to ensure such information is neither lost nor exploited. An Australian will also have the right to access the information unless this is specifically prohibited by law.

Fair Work Act 2009

This is the main legislation that governs the employee / employer relationship in Australia. It provides a safety net of minimum entitlements, enables flexible working arrangements and fairness at work and prevents discrimination against employees.

Competition and Consumer Act (2010)

The main federal law, the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (CCA) ensures that trading is fair for your business and your customers.

The CCA covers most aspects of the marketplace: dealings with suppliers, wholesalers, retailers, competitors and customers. It deals with unfair market practices, industry codes of practice, mergers and acquisitions of companies, product safety, collective bargaining, product labelling, price monitoring, and the regulation of industries such as telecommunications, gas, electricity and airports.

Copyright Act 1968

Under copyright law, the copyright owner has a number of exclusive rights including the right to publish the work, control copying, prepare derivative works and perform of their work as well as the right to make the material available online.

- Copyright is really a set of rights – copyright owners have economic and moral rights as well as legal rights.
- Copyright law aims to protect the creative work of the copyright owner from unauthorised use by others.
- Copyright law also tries to balance this right with the general public's right to access information.

Copyright protects the written expression of an idea or concept - it does not protect the actual idea or concept itself. Copyright doesn't give the author of a work a monopoly over the ideas or information expressed in that work – anyone can use the ideas contained in a work provided they do not use the exact words used by the author to describe the idea or concept.
